Love where you live! Welcome to downtown living in one of Concord's most desirable neighborhoods! This beautiful four bedroom home is tucked out of the way of the bustle of downtown, yet close to everything. A block away from White Park, a quick walk to the newly renovated Main Street or you can even pop into the woods and enjoy biking, hiking or running on the many trails of Winant! Living here allows you to enjoy everything about downtown! Rooms are spacious, with tall ceilings, big windows and the whole house is filled with great light. The bonus finished attic can be used as another bedroom, an office, or playroom and has a small balcony that overlooks the park. Backyard and patio space has been thoughtfully designed and planted intentionally with beautiful perennials offering many blooms through the seasons! The whole home systems have been well taken care of. Ask to see the comprehensive list of updates to this well loved home! Showings begin May 16th.
